Brand Colors.

Our brand is underpinned with a color palette designed to be fresh, modern and distinctive. Different combinations of these colors can dramatically change the tone and appearance of our brand so it is important to consider how they work together. Keeping color consistent is a vital element to our branding. Color is the way we differentiate and identify our brand in a crowded marketplace. To help achieve greater brand recognition it is important that our color palette is applied accurately and consistently.

Colors.

The primary colors should be used as the main colors and the secondary colors will compliment to provide visual contrast.

Print

Pantone colors are used to all printing, rather than CMYK. Pantone colors will provide the maximum amount of consistency. In instances where this is not possible we have created optimized CMYK values.

Screens

Not all RGB colors render the same online and with different screens. Therefore we recommend the use of hexadecimal colors when applying colors to screen and when using them across digital applications.

Use of Type.

One of the most important techniques for effectively communicating content is the use of typographic hierarchy. Typographic hierarchy is a system for organizing type that establishes an order of importance, allowing the reader to easily find what they are looking for and navigate the content.

It helps guide the reader's eye to where a section begins and ends, enabling the user to isolate certain information based on the consistent use of style throughout a body of text. It is important to maintain these type pairings.
